BARK ELSINORE.

The bark Elsinore, sailed from Newcastle, N. S. W., July 13th. Had light battering winds and rain till the 25th, making but little progress in the time.
Then had a gale from N. E., blowing in gusts, with hurricane violence for 24 hours, creating a very dangerous sea, flooding the ship and starting bulwarks, and channels, and washing away everything movable; ran the ship before the storm for sixteen hours to avoid further damage.

From July 25th to August 6th, had a succession of heavy gales and very bad weather. On the latter date the wind shifted suddenly from N. to W. in a terrible squall, blowing away the fore-sail, fore-top-sail and fore-and-main-topmast stay sails.

Was thirty days from lat. of 30° to 20° S. Had no trades till she sighted Hawaii on the 21st inst. From the lat. of 1° to 4° N., had a two knot current setting W.

Lat. 20° S., lon. 170° W., saw a German bark steering E. by S., showing R. D. T. S. From Hawaii to port strong trades and squally.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

No signs of the mail steamer up to hour of going to press.

The Japanese man-of-war will sail for Japan on the 27th or 28th inst.

Mr. J. Lyons will hold his regular cash sale to-morrow morning at his sales room.

Mr. Starkey, dressed in a boating uniform, exhibited his rowing powers in a skiff, last evening.

Mr. Wm. Love has resigned from the Myrtles, and contemplates joining the Honolulu Boat Club.

The steamer James Makoe will sail for Kaula via Wailua at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The electric wire connecting the Survey Office and the Honolulu Planning Mill is said to be somewhat out of gear.

The Mutual Telephone Company are erecting new poles, considerably higher than the old ones, on King street, in the direction of Palama.

The funeral of the late Nathaniel Clifford will take place from the Hall of Lodge Le Progres at 2 p. m. tomorrow afternoon.

ANIS's coffee saloon, on Maunakea street, was broken into last night, and several tins of salmon, a box of tobacco, and a box of cigars abstracted.

The Hon. J. L. Kaulukou, Marshal of the Kingdom, was serenaded last evening by the Royal Hawaiian Band, by command of His Majesty the King. There was a large assemblage present, and an extremely pleasant evening was passed by the Marshal and his friends.

Mr. J. I. Shaw has been placed in charge of the Pantheon Saloon and Pantheon Stables, and under his management, the public will be well served.

JUDGING from the recent arrests, there is a new boom in the opium ring. Officers Teli and Hopkins each made a successful raid last night, and thereby added six Celestials to the criminal list this morning.

THE Act to naturalize Abraham Hoffnung and Sydney B. Francis Hoffnung has been published and become law. His Hawaiian Majesty's Consul-General Resident in London, now has authority to administer the oath of allegiance.

ONE of the crew of the bark Forest Queen received an ugly gash on the head, by a brick falling from the tub while discharging, this morning.
The injured man was attended to by Dr. McKibbin, and is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

A SPECIAL meeting of the Myrtle Boat Club was held last evening, for the purpose of considering the advisability of amalgamating with the Eclipse Boat Club. After considerable debate on the question, the meeting adjourned without taking a vote.

THE Rev. Mr. Peck, meeting a BULLETIN reporter on the street last evening, expressed unbounded admiration at the palm trees and the general arboral beauties of the city and suburbs. The reverend gentleman's visit will extend to the 25th instant.

THE bark Elsinore, Captain Jenks, arrived this morning, 61 days from Newcastle, N. S. W., with 1,030 tons of coal for the Hawaiian Government.
Captain Jenks has a collection of Colonial pets, on board the vessel, which he will gladly show to visitors and will take particular pains to explain the peculiar characteristics of each.

Mr. Frank Godfrey performed a gallant and heroic deed, last evening.
A defective lamp in the armory of the Honolulu Rifles was in immediate danger of exploding, when Mr.
Godfrey, with the alacrity of a ballet girl, with agility of an acrobat, seized the lamp and carried it from the building, thus preventing what might have been a serious calamity.

LAST evening the Rev. T. G. R. Peck delivered a stirring address at the Wednesday evening meeting at the Lyceum. He referred in highly complimentary terms to the universal hospitality that had been extended to him during his stay in the city.
He commended the enterprise and activity of the churches here, and he would carry home with him most delightful recollections of what he had seen on the Hawaiian Islands.

THE Rifles assembled at their armory last evening, thirty-one strong. After going through a series of exercises without guns, and having become supple through rapid bending of the body and arms, they shouldered guns and marched about the hall going through various movements. The evening's drill was brought to a close by performing the manual of arms, under direction of First Lieutenant Hebbard. Previous to dismissal, Captain Ashford expressed a hope to see all the recruits at the armory Friday evening.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. E. N. Makee, Mr. Goodale, Hon. J. N. S. Martin, and family leave to-morrow morning by the steamer W. G. Hall.

Mr. R. A. Macfie, Jr., arrived from Kilauea, Kauai, yesterday, and is registered at the Hawaiian Hotel.

OUR LEGISLATORS PHOTOGRAPHED.

Yesterday afternoon, the weather being favorable, Mr. J. J. Williams succeeded in obtaining a good photographic representation of the body of Legislators. The picture was taken on the Waikiki side of Aliolani Hale. The Hon. J. S. Walker, President of the Assembly, occupied the central position, with the Cabinet Ministers in his immediate front. The group was well arranged, and will form an interesting picture for Hawaiians and their friends.

RECEPTION TO H. A. P. CARTER.

Mr. P. C. Jones will give a reception to the Hon. H. A. P. Carter at his residence this evening from 7:30 to 10. During the evening the ARRIVAL OF THE AMANA.

The ship Amana, in command of Captain Becket, arrived this afternoon from London, via Madeira.
The Amana sailed from London April 6th, arrived at Madeira April 20th. After embarking the immigrants, which took several days, the vessel prepared to sail, and on April 29th, weighed anchor. Off the Horn the vessel had some severe weather, compelling the immigrants to keep below deck for nearly 60 days. During the cold weather, four deaths occurred. There was over 150 of the immigrants sick at one time with bronchitis, erysipelas, etc., but with no infectious disease.
The immigrants consist of 146 men, 101 women; 15 males from the ages of 12 to 20 years; 57 females ranging from 12 to 20 years of age; 140 children from 1 to 12 years old, and 16 infants, making in all 475 souls.
Although the above is the list given to the purser at Madeira, he says there are more immigrants than that aboard. During the passage four deaths and ten births occurred. The Portuguese suffered fearfully from the cold weather. They were not prepared for it, having but little clothing. Two of the children that died aboard the vessel were taken on the ship at Madeira in a bad state of health. The passage was very pleasant, notwithstanding a gale received off Patagonia, when 100 days out from London. The Amana is a very clean vessel, and a splendid sea boat. She is anchored in the stream. Mr. G. F. Brittain is purser of the Amana, and Dr.
Wardale is physician.

MR. DICKEY'S REPLY.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I regret to trespass further on your valuable space, but I wish to answer the main point in your leader of yesterday.

You admit that I, as a member of the Finance Committee, had the right to examine all the books of the Government, but hold that I should have presented a written authorization from the President of the Legislature. You are wrong. The appointment of the committee was my authorization. The Standing Committees of the house have been thoroughly published, and are perfectly well known by the officers making the refusal. I had already been fully recognized as a member of the committee by the officers of the Custom House, as I had made several visits there in that capacity.
The Collector General, of whom the request to examine was made after the refusal of the deputy, is a Noble, and as a member of the Assembly knows that I am a member of the Finance Committee, and had full authority to make the demand.

I doubt if there is any precedent in this country of any written authorization having been given to committees of the House by the President, and there are many the other way.

No, the refusal was a matter of policy. Some one interested did not want the public to know how much liquor had been taken out of bond without payment of duties, and had influence enough to cause the collector to defy the House in the matter.

The House has seen fit to pocket the insult and that is the end of the matter.

Respectfully,
C. H. DICKEY.

FOREIGN NEWS ITEMS.

New York, Aug. 30.—The Times Winnipeg correspondent revives the report that Sir Charles Dilke, accompanied by the Earl of Kingston is in British North America. It is said that he registered there as J.
C. Tatlow, and announced before his departure on Friday that he would go to Australia by way of British Columbia and San Francisco.

Toronto, Aug. 31.—A Winnipeg dispatch says the baggage of Sir Charles Dilke and Lord Kingston, who recently passed through Winnipeg to the Pacific Coast, was seized by the Northwest Mounted Police, on entering the Territories, for containing liquor. Sir Charles is traveling under the name of Tetlow.

Elmira, Aug. 26.—Rev. James C.
Beecher of Coseboh, Conn., brother of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Rev. Thomas K. Beecher of this city, committed suicide at the water-cure here last evening by shooting himself through the head with a rifle.
He had been suffering under severe mental troubles for a number of years, and for a time was under treatment at a Middletown asylum.
He came here recently, in care of a special attendant. At the water-cure he appeared to be in pretty fair health, and yesterday enjoyed himself with others in shooting at a target. During the evening, while conversing on the plaza, he suddenly went to his room and, taking a rifle, placed the muzzle in his mouth and fired, killing himself instantly. Mr.
Beecher was about fifty-nine years old and was the youngest son of Dr.
Lyman Beecher. He was a graduate from Dartmouth College and Andover Seminary. He was Chaplain of the Seamen's Bethel in China and Chaplain of a Brooklyn regiment.
During the War of the Rebellion he became a Colonel and was mustered out as brevet Brigadier-General.

The grain farms of Fresno, says the Expositor, will realize something over $2,000,000 for their grain crops this season.

NATIVE GENIUS.

A young man of German and native parentage, named August Herring, has opened an engraving establishment in a little shop on Fort street, nearly opposite the Pantheon Stables. He has in various stages of embellishment many cocoanut ornaments engraved in rare artistic style. One cup bears a very presentable likeness of the American Minister, Mr. Merrill, also representations of the United States arms and of the King's house at Kona, besides a cocoanut grove.
Another not so far advanced under the graver has a portrait of Mrs.
Merrill, recognizable at first sight, very finely engraved. A third shows pictures of Emperor William of Germany, King Kalakaua, Cook's monument, and a sea view at Kona.
An egg-shaped nut-shell has His Majesty and Cook's monument. A large round shell has engravings of Kamehameha, from the statue; Kamehameha in a spear-catching bout; Waialea Bay, Hawaii; and the hula dance. The artist has made some elegant vases for Queen Kapiolani, also cocoanut wine cups chased with grape vines and clusters. What is very remarkable is that Herring has acquired all this skill without a teacher. He certainly has claims to a share in the appropriation for educating Hawaiian youths abroad. 37 3t
